CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

TRUMBULL, CONN.,

STANDARD ASSOCIATION STEAM PRESS.

ORGANIZATION AND LIST OF PASTORS.

There was a church gathered and settled at Unity, then a district of Stratford, (now Trumbull,) November 18th, 1730, composed of thirty-eight members, of whom about two-thirds had been members of the Stratford church, and the same day was ordained the Rev. Richardson Miner, as pastor. He ultimately adopted Episcopal views, and was dismissed March 21st, 1744, by the Council of Connexion. He soon afterwards went to England for orders, and died there, at Salisbury. Unhappy dissensions followed in the church and society, the name of which was changed about this time from Unity to North Stratford.

The Association, the General Assembly of the Colony, and two neighboring associations, sought to advise, but the church became so broken, that it was gathered anew by the council at the settlement of the next pastor.

REV. JAMES BEEBE, who was ordained May 6th, 1747, after a ministry of over thirty-eight years as pastor, died here September 8th, 1785.

REV. IZRAHIAH WETMORE was installed Oct. 13th, 1785, and died here Aug. 3d, 1798.

(About this time the name of the church was changed from North Stratford to Trumbull; the first Trumbull town meeting being held Nov. 20th, 1797.)

REV. JOHN GILES was installed May 10th, 1802, and was dismissed September 21st, 1802.

REV. DANIEL C. BANKS was ordained Aug. 12th, 1807, and was dismissed Feb. 2d, 1813.

REV. REUBEN TAYLOR was installed Sept. 18th, 1817, and was dismissed Feb. 12th, 1824.

REV. JAMES KANT was ordained Nov. 9th, 1825, and was dismissed Nov. 11th, 1835, and died here Sept. 10th, 1840.

REV. WATNOR WARREN was stated preacher from June, 1838, to June, 1839.

REV. WILLIAM T. BACON was ordained Dec. 28th, 1842, and was dismissed May 28th, 1844.

REV. JOHN S. WHITTLESEY was ordained Oct. 2d, 1844, and was dismissed Nov. 20th, 1849.

REV. DAVID M. ELWOOD was ordained Feb. 20th, 1850, and was dismissed June 11th, 1853.

REV. WILLIAM T. BACON was stated preacher from Sept. 1st, 1853, to Sept. 1st, 1854.

REV. RALPH SMITH was stated preacher from Dec. 1st, 1854, to Dec. 1st, 1855.

REV. STEPHEN A. LOPER was stated preacher from June 1st, 1856, to June 1st, 1858.

REV. BENJAMIN SWALLOW was stated preacher from Dec. 1st, 1858, to April 1st, 1861.

REV. LOUIS E. CHARPIOT was stated preacher from Jan. 1st, 1862, to May 8th, 1864.

REV. NATHAN T. MERWIN, after a supply of the pulpit six months, was ordained June 6th, 1865.

MEETING HOUSES.

The first house for public worship was erected a short distance east of the present dwelling of Mr. John M. Booth, and south of the old burying ground, and was occupied only during the ministry of Mr. Miner.

The second house for public worship was erected and dedicated at, or near the beginning of the ministry of Mr. Beebe, on the place occupied by the present house.

The present house for public worship was dedicated September 20th, 1842.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

1. You believe there is one living and true God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, who is a spirit, infinite in power, wisdom, holiness, justice, goodness and truth.

2. You believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are given by inspiration of God, and that they are the sufficient and only infallible rule of faith and practice.

3. You believe that God is the Creator of all things, and the Lord and Governor of all worlds, and that his government and law are holy, just and good.

4. You believe that God created man upright; that our first parents freely sinned and fell, and in consequence of their fall, all mankind are, by nature, sinful, and till renewed by the grace and spirit of God, are destitute of holiness, and under the condemnation of God's righteous law.

5. You believe that the Lord Jesus Christ, who is both God and man, has, by his sufferings and death, made an atonement sufficient for the redemption of all mankind, and that salvation is freely offered to all men, so that whosoever will may be saved. But such is the depravity of the human heart, that no man will come to Christ, unless he is drawn by the Spirit of God.

6. You believe that all who are chosen unto life, through sanctification of the spirit and belief of the truth, will persevere in holy obedience, and be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

7. You believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are of divine institution, and are to be observed by Christians in all ages to the end of the world.

8. You believe there will be a Resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust, and a general Judgment, at which the wicked will be condemned to everlasting punishment, and the righteous received into life eternal.

Thus you profess and believe.

(Baptism here.)

COVENANT.

You do now in the presence of that God, who is the Searcher of all hearts, and the final Judge of the quick and the dead, solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah to be your God, Redeemer and Sanctifier; and you do promise, by the help of Divine Grace, to devote yourself to the Lord's service, by forsaking the vanities of this present world and approving yourself a true and faithful disciple of Jesus Christ, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, blameless.

You also promise and covenant, so long as God shall continue your fellowship with us, to walk in communion with this Church, cheerfully submitting yourself to its government and discipline, acting according to what you now know, or shall know to be your duty.

Thus you promise.

ACCEPTANCE.

(The church will rise.)

We, then, the members of this Church of Christ, do also covenant with you, that, with the same Divine assistance, we will watch over you with christian affection and tenderness, ever treating you in love as a member of the body of Christ, who is Head over all things to the Church.

And may God enable us to be mutually faithful, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom be glory forever. Amen.

COVENANT FOR INFANT BAPTISM.

Believing that the sacred rite of Baptism, which we are now to administer, is in accordance with the usage of the Church from the beginning, and that it proceeds from the covenant, which God has made with his people, the promise being both to them and their children after them, you do now, in the presence of God and these witnesses, solemnly give up (this child), to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, to be his both for time and for eternity.

Moreover, you promise, through the help of Divine Grace, to so bring (this child) up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," that, when (it) is old (it) shall not depart from it; and to so train (this) your offspring by Christian precept and example, that, in time (it) shall be prepared for full membership with the Church visible on earth; and ultimately to join the glorified Assembly in Heaven.

Thus you believe and promise.

STANDING RULES.

1. The Officers of the Church shall be a Pastor, Deacons, Clerk, and Treasurer. They shall be chosen and removed as occasion may require.

2. It is the duty of the Pastor to take the general oversight of the flock, to teach and preside in the Special Meetings of the Church.

3. It is the duty of the Deacons to assist in the distribution of the elements of the Lord's Supper; to minister to the wants of the poor; and to co-operate with the Pastor in promoting the spiritual interests of the Church.

4. The Officers of the Church shall constitute a Standing Committee, whose duty it shall be, to examine all applicants for admission to the Church; (this examination being open to such members as may choose to attend), and to propound such as have been approved; to prepare cases of discipline, when necessary, for trial before the Church, proceeding according to the rule laid down in Matt. xviii—15, 16., unless the offence be public; and to take a general oversight of the moral and religious welfare of the Church.

5. Applicants for membership, either by letter, or on profession, and of members asking dismission, shall be announced from the pulpit, at least one week, (two are desirable,) before the final vote.

Such vote may be taken at a special meeting of the Church, either on the Sabbath, or, at the Preparatory Lecture.

6. Members on making other places their permanent residence, are expected to transfer their relation to some other Evangelical Church, and within one year after their removal.

7. The Articles of Faith, the Covenants, and Standing Rules shall not be altered, except by a two-third vote of the Church, at a special meeting, regularly called.

REGULAR APPOINTMENTS.
